Sam Presti
Executive Vice President & General Manager

Sam Presti is in the midst of his 10th season with the Oklahoma City Thunder after being named the 11th General Manager in club history on June 7, 2007. A year into his tenure with the Thunder, Presti was promoted to Executive Vice President and General Manager by Professional Basketball Club Chairman, Clayton Bennett.

During his nine-plus seasons with the Thunder, Presti has worked diligently to assemble the building blocks for long term success both on and off the court. Dating back to the start of the 2009-10 season, Presti and his staff have watched the Thunder amass the second best record in the NBA during this span (behind only San Antonio).

With Presti at the helm, the Thunder has captured five Northwest Division Championships and Oklahoma City is one of only three teams to finish with a record of .500 or better in each of the last eight seasons.

Presti's consistent focus has been to utilize the NBA Draft to establish the foundation for sustained success on the floor and in the community. He selected Russell Westbrook with the 4th overall in the 2008 draft. Westbrook has since become a six-time All-Star and this season Westbrook led the league in scoring for a second time while also posting the most triple-doubles in NBA history. Meanwhile, Steven Adams was named to the two consecutive BBVA Rising Stars teams after being selected by the Thunder with the 12th overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft. More recently, Presti acquired the second overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, Victor Oladipo, also a member of two consecutive BBVA Rising Stars teams.

After moving to Oklahoma City in July of 2008, Presti has stressed the importance of community involvement for both Thunder players and staff. Under his leadership, Thunder players have made more than 2,000 community appearances in and around Oklahoma City. Presti has also made it policy for every new player and staff member to tour the Oklahoma City Memorial and Museum soon after joining the organization.

Under Presti's guidance, the Thunder has advanced to postseason in seven of the last eight seasons including five straight years (2010-2014). After defeating the Spurs in the 2016 Conference Semifinals, the Thunder has won 10 playoff series in the last five seasons (Only Miami has won more postseason series during this span). At the conclusion of the 2012-13 season, Oklahoma City became just the second team in NBA history (Boston Celtics; 1955-1960) to increase its winning percentage for five consecutive seasons (while maintaining a winning percentage of .700 or better in two of those seasons). Dating back to the 2011-12 season, the Thunder became Western Conference Champions on the heels of the 2010-11 season in which the Thunder became the youngest team in the prior quarter century to reach the NBA's Western Conference Finals.

During the 2009-10 season, Presti's third year at the helm, Oklahoma City experienced one of the largest turnarounds in NBA history. A year after winning 23 games, the Thunder concluded the 2009-10 season with a 50-32 record (.610) and captured the franchise's first playoff berth in Oklahoma City. The 27-win improvement was tied for the eighth largest improvement in NBA history. Presti was named NBA Executive of the Year by The Sporting News at the conclusion of the season.

Presti has been on the NBA's Instant Replay Committee since 2009 and has served on the league's Competition Committee dating back to the 2011-12 season.

Prior to joining the Thunder, the 40-year-old Presti held a variety of roles with the San Antonio Spurs. After starting in 2000 as a video intern for Gregg Popovich, Presti moved up through the front office ranks in San Antonio before being elevated to the position of Vice President and Assistant General Manager. He was honored with the Emerson College Young Alumnus Award in 2005. Presti has also completed Harvard University's Continuing Education program on leadership and decision making.

Presti currently resides on the board of the Oklahoma City National Memorial and served as chairman of the Oklahoma Standard campaign, a movement built on the foundation of resilience, compassion, consistent acts of honor, service and kindness.

Kanter was one of only two players (Zach Randolph) to come off the bench this season (min. 50 games) and average 14+ points and 6+ rebounds and his Player Efficiency Rating (PER) ranked 19th best in the NBA. Adams finished with a career-best 16 double-doubles and Kanter posted 18 double-doubles on the year (second most in the NBA for a non-starter).

In the Wins: In the Thunder's 47 wins this season, the Thunder is outscored the opposition by a 110.5 to 100.1 margin. In those games, OKC is limited the opposition to just 43.2% shooting. The Thunder went 23-3 this season when holding the opponent to fewer than 100 points.

40-Point Games: Including his franchise-best 58 point outing on March 7 versus Portland, Russell Westbrook became the first player since Kobe Bryant (during the 2011-12 season) to score 40 or more in four straight games. Westbrook scored 40 or more points in three straight games twice this past season, thereby becoming one of just four players to accomplish the feat since the merger (Moses Malone, Michael Jordan and Kobe Bryant). In the three games prior to Christmas, Russell became the first player since Michael Jordan in April of 1989 to record three straight 40-point double-doubles. He is also the first player since Wilt Chamberlain in 1964 to post three consecutive games with at least 40+ points, 10+ rebounds and 5+ assists. During the past season, Westbrook posted 18 40-point games (most in the NBA) and four 50-point games (most in the NBA).

OKC is Fan Friendly: The Thunder once again played in front of a packed-house during the entire 2016-17 season as fans continued to fill Chesapeake Energy Arena. After registering sellouts during all 41 home games in each of the previous eight seasons, the Thunder has recorded sellouts in 253 consecutive regular season home outings and 297 games overall when including the postseason. Fans in attendance this season continued to enjoy the improvements made to Chesapeake Energy Arena as part of a taxpayer funded initiative passed in March of 2008. Thanks to the publically funded initiative, the team's arena boasts new terrace suites, an updated main concourse with new concession stands, a new Sunset Lounge on the Club Level and a first-class courtside club.

Raining 3's: On Feb 28 versus the Utah Jazz, the Thunder connected on 12 straight three point field goals to open the game. The 12 consecutive made 3-point field goals represented a Thunder era record (OKC had never made more than eight straight 3-point field goals to start a game) and the most straight made 3-point field goals in the NBA to start a game in nearly 20 years (Seattle made 12 consecutive 3's to start a game on 1/4/98 at Vancouver).

In the clutch: Throughout the 2016-17 season, Russell Westbrook was incredibly effective in "clutch" late game situation ("Clutch" is defined as the final 5 minutes of regulation and overtime when the score is within a five-point differential). Below are several of Westbrook's ranks in those late game situations. During the Thunder's win versus the Grizzlies on Feb. 3 Westbrook scored the last 15 points of the game to become the first player since Michael Jordan (11/21/97) to record the final 13+ points of a game. Additionally, Westbrook set a career-high by scoring 21 fourth quarter points during the Thunder's win versus New Orleans on Feb. 26. After trailing by 13 with 3:31 in regulation on March 27 at Dallas, the Thunder scored 14 unanswered points to defeat Dallas on Mar. 27 (Westbrook scored 12 of the Thunder's final 14 points). Two nights later, Westbrook scored 26 points during the fourth quarter and overtime as OKC rallied from a 21-point deficit to defeat the Magic on Mar. 29. Westbrook capped-off his clutch play this season, by connecting on the game-winning 3-point field goal as time expired on April 9 in Denver (Westbrook outscored the Nuggets himself 13-2 in the final 2:30).

WESTBROOK IN THE CLUTCH
Points (247): Ranks 1st
Plus/Minus (+85): Ranks 3rd
Steals (11): Ranks T-2nd
Assists (28): Ranks 5th
Rebounds (53): Ranks 5th

20/10: During a seven game stretch during January (1/4 at CHA – 1/15 at SAC), Enes Kanter averaged 20.0 points and 10.1 rebounds. In those games, Kanter shot an equally impressive 61.1 percent from the floor during this span.

Seven Straight Triple-Doubles: During the 2016-17 season, Russell Westbrook became the first player in NBA history to string together seven consecutive triple doubles on two separate occasions. Westbrook was the first player to record seven straight triple-doubles since Michael Jordan (recorded seven consecutive triple–doubles from 3/25/89 – 4/6/89) accomplished the feat. Moreover, Westbrook is just one of four players in NBA history (Wilt Chamberlain, Jordan and Oscar Robertson) to ever recorded seven consecutive triple-doubles. Only Wilt Chamberlain's nine-game triple-double streak (3/8/68 - 3/20/68) lasted longer then what Westbrook accomplished this season. During Westbrook's seven consecutive triple-double streak in November and December (in which OKC went 6-1), Westbrook averaged an astounding 28.9 points, 13.6 rebounds and 13.0 assists.

FAST Triple-Doubles: On April 4th vs. Milwaukee, Russell Westbrook recorded another triple-double through just three quarters of play. This represented the 28th time of his career and the 14th time this season in which Westbrook has posted a triple-double in three quarters or fewer.

First Half Triple Double: In the first half of the Thunder's 26-point New Year's Eve victory over the Clippers, Russell Westbrook recorded a triple double in the first half for the second time in his career after logging just 18 minutes and 45 seconds of game action. This represented the second fastest triple-double of his career (Westbrook registered a triple-double in 17 minutes and 46 seconds on Apr. 11, 2016) and the third fastest in NBA history (Jim Tucker holds the NBA record by posting a triple-double in an even 17 minutes during Feb. of 1955).

All Star Recap: During the 2017 All-Star game Westbrook continued to shine as he registered 41 points (7-13 3FGs) to go along with seven assists and five rebounds in just less than 20 minutes of action. Westbrook, who led the West to victories in the 2015 and 2016 All-Star Games, is already the only player in league history to win the Kia NBA All-Star MVP Award outright in back-to-back years. Also during All-Star Weekend in New Orleans, Thunder rookies Domantas Sabonis and Alex Abrines competed in the BBVA Compass Rising Stars Challenge. Abrines and Sabonis became the first pair of rookie teammates named to the Rising Stars Challenge from a team with a winning record since 2009 (Portland Trail Blazers). During the Oklahoma City era, the Thunder has had eight players named to the Rising Stars Challenge which ranks tied for third most during this span. Of these teams, the Thunder is the only franchise with a winning record dating back to the start of the 2008-09 season.

What a road to 600: On Nov. 18 versus Brooklyn, Russell Westbrook appeared in his 600th career regular season game. After recording a single rebound and his 20th point, Westbrook joined Oscar Roberson as the second player in NBA history to record 13,000 points, 3,400 rebounds and 4,500 assists through 600 games.

Elias Corner: Russell Westbrook helped lead the Thunder to a perfect 3-0 start to the season and in those games Westbrook became the first player in NBA history to register 100+ points, 30+ rebounds and 30+ assists in the first three games of a season. For the first week of the season, the NBA named Westbrook the Western Conference Player of the Week. After recording a second consecutive triple-double on Oct. 30 versus the Lakers, Russell Westbrook became the first player to record a triple-double in two of the first three games of the season since Magic Johnson accomplished the feat (to begin the 1982-83 season). Westbrook is one of four players all time to register two triple-doubles in the first three games of the season [Johnson (2x), Jerry Lucas and Oscar Robertson (2x)].During the Thunder's 113-100 victory over the Phoenix Suns on Oct. 28, Russell Westbrook became the first player since Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (1/19/75) to register a triple-double that included 50+ points scored. On the night, Westbrook, scored 51 points to go along with a team-high 13 rebounds and 10 assists. Westbrook equaled a Thunder record by scoring 23 points in the third quarter alone. By accomplishing the feat, Westbrook is now one of just five players (Abdul-Jabbar, Elgin Baylor, Richie Guerin and Wilt Chamberlain) in NBA history to post a triple-double that included 50+ points scored.

Preseason is Spain: The Thunder began exhibition play to kick-off the 2016-17 season with a pair of preseason contests in Madrid and Barcelona, Spain. Oklahoma City returned stateside after splitting their two contests in Europe against Real Madrid and FC Barcelona Lassa. Oklahoma City participated in the Global Games Europe for the first time since 2013 when the Thunder faced-off against the Philadelphia 76ers in Manchester, England and Fenerbahçe Ulker in Istanbul, Turkey. Oklahoma City finished 2016 preseason play with a record of 3-3 after winning their last two exhibition games versus Minnesota and Denver by a combined 28 points.

Home Opener: On Oct. 28 at Chesapeake Energy Arena, the Thunder prevailed over the Phoenix Suns in overtime to claim an eighth consecutive home opening victory. After defeating the 76ers in Philadelphia two nights earlier, the Thunder improved to 6-3 in season openers during the Oklahoma City era.

Home Cooking: Since arriving in Oklahoma City in 2008, the Thunder has always taken pride in defending its home court. Oklahoma City finished the 2016-17 season with a home record of 28-13 (tied for 9th best home record in the NBA). Included in that, OKC went 19-7 at Chesapeake Energy Arena this year when facing Western Conference opponents. Dating back to the start of the 2009-10 season, OKC has gone 241-79 (.753) at home (2nd best home record in the NBA during this span).

Just Another Back-2-Back: During the 2016-17 season, the Thunder competed in 15 back-to-back sets. OKC ended up finishing 8-7 on the first night and 5-10 on the second night of a back-to-back, respectively.

Sustaining Success: In the past eight seasons, OKC has compiled the second best record in the NBA (behind San Antonio). After the 2007-08 season in which Oklahoma City won 20 games after a 3-29 start, the Thunder found ways to improve the club in each of the four subsequent seasons. With a 60-22 record during the 2012-13 season, Oklahoma City became just the second team in NBA history (Boston; 1955-1960) to increase its winning percentage for five consecutive seasons (while maintaining a winning percentage of .700 or better in two of those seasons). OKC is one of only three teams (Houston and San Antonio) to maintain a .500 winning percentage in each of the last eight seasons.
